

Hello, seniors!

In order for your senior quote to appear in the 2026 yearbook, you must comply with the following publishing rules. Please note, no refunds will be given for any reason.

- Quote must be grammatically correct: If there are misspellings, grammatical errors or typos, your quote will not be used
- If the meaning isn't obvious or could in any way be misconstrued, it will not be included
- Be sure to properly cite your quote
- No profanities, slang, vulgarity, obscenity
- No abbreviations, acronyms, creative spelling
- Nothing that could be considered offensive, questionable, or inappropriate for a school setting
- No references to cigarettes, alcohol, drugs, sex, gangs, etc.
- No political content
- No quotes from or references to religious texts
- No quotes that include references to YouTube videos, series/episode titles, time stamps, song lyrics, or album covers
- No language that denigrates another person's character, ethnicity, religious/political beliefs, sexuality, gender, physical or mental ability, etc.
- No derogatory comments about the school, students, faculty, or staff members
- No special characters/emoji
- The yearbook staff, adviser, and administration reserve the right to refuse a quote for any reason without notice
- By submitting this quote through this form, you are signing off that you may be subject to disciplinary action if the quote is found inappropriate
- Deadline: 02/26/2026. Absolutely no quotes will be accepted after for any reason. NO REFUNDS WILL BE GIVEN FOR ANY REASON.
