

Answer: “Charles has turned down his Berklee scholarship to take a supervisor job at HEB, please come and talk to him.”

Charles had worked for HEB for a while and the fact that Mr. Hughes “seemed” very upset as well, made the whole story believable. At one point, Charles realized how upset Ms. Anderson was with him and wanted to tell her it was just a joke.

However, someone ran in Mr. Hughes’ office and saved the day with another scenario that one of the girls was sick. Ms. Anderson rushed back to the choir room to the wonderful shout of “SURPRISE!”

#Unforgettablememory

