

Answer: Jassminn Pickens

One morning during Music History class, Jassminn asked what she needed to do to join choir. According to her best friend, “This girl can SING!” Turns out the friend was right and out of 6,000 people, she was selected to move to round 2 of The Voice! Unfortunately, her instrumental CD track would not play, and they would not allow her to perform her song “a cappella.”
